

Painting the town ...

A success, the Dress for Success event was, with a week that offered a million-dollar diamond ring from Tiffany & Co., painted nude models in support of the BC Professional Firefighters' Burn Fund, B.C. Sports Hall of Fame legends, and a late night Donnelly birthday bash that still has my michael schratter

ON THE TOWN

ears ringing.

The week answered a few of life's mysteries. For example, did you know that when putting on a diamond ring that is worth the equivalent of a Yaletown penthouse, your hand shakes uncontrollably?

I bet you didn't know that Dominelli International College of Esthetics artists took 4.5 hours to paint their human canvases, but it only took me 4.5 seconds for the paint to come off on my hands as I adjusted "the art" so that the photographs would be clean enough for my 24 hours editor?

But maybe I was the only one that didn't know that attending a mid-week Donnelly Nightclub anniversary soiree makes for a long day at work the next day

E-mail Michael at:

mschratter@gmail.com

Check out more On The Town photos at vancouver.24hrs.ca. Michael can also be heard on CFUN 1410 AM Tuesdays at 4:45 pm.

Hugs from gorgeous painted model Kelly Dokter? Yes, B.C. Fire Fighters' Burn Fund director David Dales will put up with all sorts of inconveniences in order to get donations for the construction of the Burn Fund Building. It was all part of the B.C. Professional Firefighters' Burn Fund gala that had Dominelli International College of Esthetics painting wonders in their Carnevale Body Art Competition.