

Effective Networking for Entrepreneurs & Professionals: From Rookie to Pro

Half-Day Seminar

9 am - 1 pm, Saturday, November 30, 2013

Registration: 8:15 am - 9:00 am

RBC Room • YWCA Hotel Vancouver
733 Beatty Street, Vancouver, BC

You can build a successful and lucrative business or career supported by local clients or employers.

Ever wonder what it takes to create a successful business? When you know how to establish deep and lasting relationships with people, you'll never run out of clients or employers. Learn advanced networking techniques that will help you to be selected over your competitors.

Do you:

- find yourself attending events that don't lead to anything meaningful or useful?
- think of networking as shallow and superficial?
- see networking as a chore or a waste of money?

In this seminar you'll learn:

- how to network properly so people will trust you more and want to do business with you
- how to recruit more strategic partners so you can build a solid and profitable business or career
- how to go from average networker to well-respected and highly sought-after connector.

About The Seminar

Presenter – George Verdolaga is one of Canada's top networking success coaches. He is also an author and speaker. George has owned several successful businesses that he built from scratch as a result of establishing relationships with clients, suppliers and strategic partners. He helps people become influential and successful professionals or business owners who enrich the lives of other people and create a positive impact in the community.

"Thank you for your fresh and thought-provoking perspective. You've clearly discussed why people need to constantly cultivate relationships and get out of the hunter mentality that holds a lot of us back."

– Adon Rigg, Sales Manager
